

British Academy of Management: Research Methodology-Special Interest Group (SIG)

In collaboration with: The University Forum for Human Resource Development's (UFHRD), Research Activities Committee

Sharing our Struggles Seminar Series: Building an Impact Pathway

December 12th, 2018.

Host: Aileen Lawless (Liverpool John Moores University)

Convenors: Valerie Anderson (University of Portsmouth)

& Sophie Mills - Research Methodology SIG Co-chair

Programme

Presentations will be followed by discussion sessions in which attendees will have an opportunity to introduce, raise and explore their own views in relation to the presentations.

| | |
|-------|---|
| 09.00 | Registration and arrival |
| 09.30 | Introductions |
| 09.40 | Presentation 1: The Struggle for Impact. Prof Peter Turnbull (University of Bristol): using examples from international REF impact cases to share how some of the difficulties associated with creating impact can be tackled. |
| 11.00 | Refreshment Break |
| 11.10 | Presentation 2: Pathways to Impact. Prof Graeme Martin (University of Dundee): using examples from two impact cases to be submitted to REF2021, he will discuss a range of different pathways to impact. |
| 12.30 | Lunch Break |
| 13.30 | Presentation 3: The Impactful Academic Prof Lisa Anderson and Dr Paul Ellwood (University of Liverpool): using teaching (or activities conventionally labelled as teaching) as a starting point for impact. |
| 14.50 | Refreshment Break |
| 15.00 | Presentation 4: Developing Networks and Building Impact Dr Holly Birkett (University of Birmingham): leading an Impact case and supporting others. |
| 16.20 | Feedback, close and farewells |