By air

By Air (International Visitors)
Warwick Conferences at the University of Warwick is easily accessible from all major airports in the UK. There are two regional airports and the campus can also be reached by public transport from all the major London airports (see below).

Regional Airports
The University of Warwick is easily accessed from all major airports in the UK. There are two regional airports and the campus can also be reached by public transport from all the major London airports (see below).

- Birmingham, to get to the University from Birmingham airport either take the train to Coventry (£3.50 return, 10 minutes) and then local bus (£1.60 single, 25 minutes; exact fare must be paid to driver) or taxi (about £10, 15 minutes) to the University of Warwick (possibly slightly quicker, but expensive - about £30 for the 30 minute ride) take a taxi from the airport to the University of Warwick.
- East Midlands (near Nottingham) has some international flights, and has an (infrequent) National Express service to Coventry.

London Airports

- London Heathrow has many more flights, and is about 2 hours away from Coventry either by bus (National Express) or by rail (via London) - the bus option is simpler, and cheaper.
- London Luton also has various international flights, and is under 2 hours from Coventry by bus (National Express).
- London Gatwick is the second largest airport in the UK, offering a variety of international flights, and is 3hrs 30mins from Coventry by bus (National Express).
- London Stansted has various international flights, and is 3 hours 30 minutes from Coventry by bus (National Express).

Coventry can also be reached by train from all the London airports listed above. For more information see the National Rail website. Note that the University is not in the town of Warwick (which is about 8 miles away), and it is not the same as Coventry University (which is a different university, located in the centre of Coventry). This is important when telling taxi drivers where you want to be. If you're coming by rail or bus (e.g., National Express or Megabus), you should come to Coventry. Information on getting to the University of Warwick from Coventry and other directions locally can be found here.
