Description

We are delighted to offer the now well established, annual workshop for current Doctoral and Early Career Researchers. The aim is to enable each of you, as participants, to prepare for and leverage your attendance at high quality paper conferences such as the BAM 2020 Conference and build a strong basis for your future publications.

This ‘hands-on’ workshop aims to help Doctoral and Early Career Researchers to successfully transform part of your research into a paper. Within a safe environment, you will be able to experiment with your writing style, receive feedback on areas for improvement and development, meet prominent academicians in your field and network.

- Please make sure you use the same e-mail address you initially used to create your BAM account, when registering for the event.
- Once you filled in your details: E-mail (Your BAM account e-mail address), First Name, Last Name and you selected the right Event Fee Type (Member / Non-BAM Member / Student
