

Becoming an Education-Focused Professor: Session 1

Education: The development of innovative and progressive learning and teaching

27th-28th March 2023

Level 17, Warwick Business School, The Shard, 32 London Bridge Street, London, SE1 9SG

Day 1: Monday

Time	Session	Presenter / Lead
9.00-9.45	Registration and tea/coffee
9.45-10.15	Welcome and introducing MKE	Drs. Ashley Roberts, Caroline Chaffer, Fariba Darabi and Prof Kate Black
10.15-11.15	L&T in 2023: Forging a successful education-focused career: A leader's perspective	Professor Palie Smart will offer a Dean's perspective on education focused careers and T&S promotion routes.
11.15-11.30	Coffee break
11.30-12.30	Developing your career identity	Professor Alan Parkinson (UCL) Professor Alan Parkinson will reflect on his journey to education professor. You will subsequently draw on Alan and Palie's experiences over the two days to explore your own scholarship ideas within the theme of education.
12.30-13.30	Lunch / networking
13.30-15.00	External recognition	Art-based Methodologies in Management Education Dr. Ashley Roberts (WBS) Dr. Ashley Roberts will draw upon his own practice as to how outputs can be maximised (conference papers/journal outputs/national research and teaching awards) You will then use Ashley's experiences and advice as a springboard for exploring your own ideas for outputs based on your practice.
15.00-15.30	Wrap up and feedforward
15.30	Close / networking

Day 2: Tuesday

Mapping your T&S career to identify specific actions for this year. You will use your own institutions' promotion criteria, and reflect upon your learning from Day 1 in the context of your existing academic experience in order to focus on your own career development. You will identify short-term, as well as longer-term actions for your career development.

Time	Session
9.15-10.00	Registration and tea/coffee
10.00-12.30	Mapping your T&S career
12.30-13.00	Wrap up and feedforward
13.00-14.00	Lunch and networking