

BAM and partner research grant schemes 2023 updated assessment criteria (09 December 2022)

Criterion // Numeric value	5	4	3	2	1
Quality of project
Does the application demonstrate sound knowledge the field including literature(s) relevant to the project?	Fully	Largely	Somewhat	Partially	Not at all
Are the proposal methodology, research design and method of high quality and original?	Fully	Largely	Somewhat	Partially	Not at all
Are the project and the project workplan viable?	Fully	Largely	Somewhat	Partially	Not at all
Does the project have potential to contribute to the field (i.e. conceptual originality and relevance to the wider management and business community)?	Significant potential	Strong potential	Some potential	Little potential	No potential
Have the ethical implications of the project been appropriately investigated and considered in the application?	Fully	Largely	Somewhat	Partially	Not at all
Engagement with the BAM (and ANZAM, IAM or SIMA where applicable) community
To what extent does the project fits with the Grant Scheme remit?	Fully	Largely	Somewhat	Partially	Not at all
To what extent does the project relate either to one or more BAM Special Interest Groups or the BAM Management Knowledge and Education group?	Fully	Largely	Somewhat	Partially	Not at all
To what extent is the project aligned with BAM's Mission and one or more of BAM's Strategic objectives? For Collaborative Research Awards, to what extent is the project aligned with ANZAM/IAM/SIMA's Mission and Strategic Objectives?	Fully	Largely	Somewhat	Partially	Not at all
Publication, dissemination and impact plans and value for money
Is the project publication and dissemination plan ambitious, specific and aligned with the Grant Scheme remit?	Fully	Largely	Somewhat	Partially	Not at all
Is the project impact and engagement plan ambitious, specific and aligned with the Grant Scheme remit?	Fully	Largely	Somewhat	Partially	Not at all
Does the project offer value for money?	Fully	Largely	Somewhat	Partially	Not at all
Do the proposed outcomes justify the funding requested?	Fully	Largely	Somewhat	Partially	Not at all

